

Dr. Randy Boman, shown here, will be honored March 1, 2011, as the new director of the OSU Southwest Research and Extension Center near Altus, Ok. Dr. Boman previously worked for Texas A&M University at Lubbock, Tx., directing its Extension cotton program on the Texas High Plains. (ntokcotton photo)

ALTUS, Ok.-A reception to welcome Dr. Randy Boman as the new director of the Oklahoma State University Southwest Research and Extension Center will be held March 1, 2011, from 10 a.m. until 12 p.m. at the center located three miles south of Altus on HW 283. Host of the reception is the OSU Department of Plant and Soil Sciences.

Refreshments will be served during the reception. Anyone planning to attend the reception can call 580-482-2120 or 482-3459.

Dr. Boman will also serve as director of the OSU Cotton Extension Program. Replacing Dr. JC Banks, who retired in 2010, Dr. Boman previously worked for Texas A&M University at Lubbock, Tx., directing its Extension cotton program on the Texas High Plains.

Dr. Boman is a native of Oklahoma. He graduated from Snyder High School, Snyder, Ok. He completed his PhD at Oklahoma State University working with another Snyder HS graduate, Dr. Robert Westerman, who currently is an administrator in the OSU Division of Agriculture.

-30-